MEMORANDUM: Re - Bonus, Contract of Edwin F. Mycroft

1. In paragraph 2 of the contract with Mr. Mycroft dated 12 June 1951 there is the stipulation that Mycroft will be paid a sum not to exceed $500 for the six month period that he is employed by the Agency. The exact amount of the bonus is left to the determination of the Agency in its sole discretion.

2. It is planned to give Mycroft the full $500 per six month period in the event that he completes his contract. If, however, the contract is terminated by Mycroft voluntarily, or by the Agency for cause, the bonus is forfeited.
